CHRISTOPHER WEST

Christopher West is a proud husband and father of five. His global lecturing, bestselling books and multiple audio and video programs have also made him the world's most recognized teacher of John Paul II's "Theology of the Body" – a bold, biblical vision of love and sexuality that takes us to the "cor" of what it means to be human. As Founder and President of The Cor Project, he leads an international outreach devoted to spreading this liberating teaching and empowering others to live and share it.

MARK HOUCK

Mark Houck is the Co-Founder/President of The King's Men. Through the ministry of The King's Men, Mark works full-time to unite and build up men as true leaders, protectors and providers through education, formation, action and healing. The work of The King's Men and Mark has received national attention from The National Catholic Register & EWTN. In addition to his work as a chastity educator, pro-life activist and President of The King's Men, Mark is a Catholic radio host and speaks on a variety of issues related to the development of masculine spirituality.

ARCHBISHOP JOSEPH W. TOBIN

Archbishop Tobin was appointed to the Archdiocese of Indianapolis on Oct. 18, 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI. He previously served as secretary of the Congregation for the Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life in the Vatican. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1978 and the episcopate in 2010. His many talents include the ability to speak in English, Spanish, French, Italian and Portuguese. He has been well received in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, particularly for his relevant preaching and genuine desire to be with and among his people.
